You And I

Anon

You and I took a special chance
the first time we met...
We both knew enough of love, and life, to understand that two people don't fall in love, they grow into it slowly... and we'd both been hurt before by feelings that seemed to easily lost... but there was something between us from the beginning, a unique harmony that made us take that special chance...

You and I took a special chance
the first time we argued... after feeling hurt and sad, and both of us trying to apologize at the same time for disagreeing over such a small matter, we knew that our relationship was worth more... than anything that might come between us, and we knew after that first time that what we had together would see us through the hard times and make us better appreciate the good, because we took that special chance...

You and I took a special chance
the first time we said "I Love You"... for we knew that we would share stormy as well as sunny times, laughter and tears, some dreams that would come beautifully true, and others that would fade in our memories... and we knew in our hearts that our love deserved all the effort we could make to fulfill our life together... for we took that special chance... and found a very special love.
